REQUEST FOR PROPOSALS

Paul Henkin Student Travel Grant

The American Psychological Foundation (APF) provides financial support for innovative research and programs that enhance the power of psychology to elevate the human condition and advance human potential both now and in generations to come.

APF is requesting applications for the Paul Henkin Student Travel Grant. This grant provides monetary support to defer the costs of registration, lodging, and travel for student members of APA Division 16 to attend the APA annual convention. The successful candidate will have a strong understanding of the demands of the field of school psychology and the value of continuing professional development in this area demonstrated through research accomplishments, community involvement, and other relevant contributions.

Amount: Up to $1,000 for registration, lodging, and travel expenses.

Goals: The program seeks:

- To enrich the field of school psychology by supporting its promising younger members
- To facilitate the growth of student members of APA Division 16 in the field of school psychology by enabling them to have experiential learning opportunities such as attending the APA convention

Eligibility: Applicants must be student members of APA Division 16. Employees of APA and persons receiving reimbursements from other APA sources to attend the convention are ineligible for the award. The funds can be used to pay for convention registration, lodging and transportation costs. Funds cannot be used for food, drink, supplies, or other expenses incurred while attending the APA convention.

APF encourages applications from individuals who represent diversity in race, ethnicity, gender, age, disability, and sexual orientation.

To Apply:

Submit the following application materials: an application form, a letter of recommendation, a 500-word essay, and a brief curriculum vitae, online at <http://forms.apa.org/apf/grants/> by April 15, 2010. The application form can be found at <http://www.apa.org/apf/henkinform.pdf>.

Questions about this program should be directed to Kim Palmer Rowsome, Program Officer, at krowsome@apa.org.
