WHAT MEMBERS THINK

"Ever since I was a graduate student in clinical psychology, my primary identity has been as a clinical psychologist. So, being involved in the Society of Clinical Psychology, Division 12, feels like a place that I can call home within APA. We are delighted to welcome graduate students, interns, and postdoctoral residents into our division, as students are the future of clinical psychology." Nadine Kaslow, Ph. D., ABPP, Division 12 President, 2004

"Division membership affords students numerous opportunities for networking with professionals involved in the practice, research, and teaching, psychology" Jessica Foley, M.S. Graduate Student, Nova Southeastern University

"As a graduate student beginning my journey toward becoming a clinical psychologist, I faced many questions and many choices. Becoming a student member of Division 12 was one of the best choices I ever made-I was immediately networked with a wealth of information, and opportunities that continue to help me on my journey as a clinical psychologist." Brandon G. Briery, Ph.D.

AFFILIATION

Affiliation with Division 12 is based on the calendar year, but applications are acceptable year round.

If your application is for the current year, your affiliation will be dated January 1st of this year. You will receive the back issues for this year. For applications received after September 1, membership will begin January of the following year.

Your journal subscriptions will also begin with the first issue of the new calendar year.

Division 12 student affiliation is separate from APA student affiliation. While student affiliates of Division 12 are not required to be student affiliates of the APA, APA affiliation is recommended. Information can be obtained from the APA Office in Washington DC. (800) 374-2721.

If you are a Post-Doctoral candidate/fellow, you may continue your affiliate membership for one year at $30. If you wish to continue membership in Division 12 after this year, you must apply for Full/Affiliate Membership.
