Inside

The events of September 11 and associated and unassociated sequelae preoccupy us, or at least your editor. As a psychologist I know that we cannot give in to fear, and so I am not fearful, but just a tad on edge. Keeping to our business helps. So peruse this issue which has some neat stuff. As you read be reminded to exercise your opportunity to vote for Division One on the APA Council Apportionment ballot. And by all means fill out the nomination ballot packaged with this issue so that the Elections Committee will know your wishes about future leadership of the Division. Needed are nominations for President-Elect and for two Members of the Executive Committee. The election will held in the Spring and the nominations are needed by the end of this year.
