

Division 21

ANNOUNCEMENT AND CALL FOR PAPERS

“A New Collaborative Frontier: Innovative Approaches and Applications”
Annual Mid-Year Symposium
March 2-3, 2007, George Mason University, Fairfax, Virginia

Sponsored by the:

AMERICAN PSYCHOLOGICAL ASSOCIATION
Division 21: Applied Experimental and Engineering Psychology
Division 19: Military Psychology
HUMAN FACTORS AND ERGONOMICS SOCIETY
Potomac Chapter

The theme of the 2007 symposium is “A New Collaborative Frontier: Innovative Approaches and Applications.” The theme explores the challenges in understanding and predicting human behavior given the growing trend in society, the military, and the work place towards shared work and information. Oral presentation and poster submissions supporting the theme of the conference are welcomed. In line with the theme, we hope to foster collaborative opportunities between academic, military, and industry labs by having several invited research program directors describe current projects. Papers and posters presented at the 2006 symposium are at:

<http://www.apa.org/divisions/div21/homepage.html> - Meetings Tab.

Single page submissions must contain the following information:

- 1) Submission title (not to exceed 12 words)
- 2) Author(s) and affiliation(s) with student authors clearly identified
- 3) 250-word abstract concisely describing the presentation or poster
- 4) Preferred format (oral presentation or poster)
- 5) Primary point of contact information (email address, phone)
