

APA Division 43 -- Family Psychology Celebrating the diversity of all families

Division 43 extends a cordial welcome to all psychologists and students. Come find out what Family Psychology is all about!

Family Psychologists

- Use systems concepts in theory, practice, and research
- Recognize family interaction patterns
- Include both practitioners and scientists
- Work in public and private clinics, universities, hospitals, and centers
- Work in such areas as
 - All phases of couple counseling
 - The impact of illness on the family
 - Childhood, adolescence, and school
 - Gay, lesbian, and bisexual concerns
 - Gender, ethnicity, and aging
 - Drug and alcohol abuse
 - Domestic violence
 - Government policy regarding the family
 - Nontraditional family forms
 - Marital/couple transitions

Division 43

- Keeps its members up to date on theory and practice through The Family Psychologist
- Represents Family Psychologists' interests in the APA Council and other APA bodies
- Works for parity for family treatment under managed care and other payment systems
- Facilitates communication among its members by providing a Web site (www.apa.org/divisions/div43) and LISTSERV
- Has active liaisons with other APA groups:
 - Science, Education, Practice, and Public Interest directorates
 - Committee on Children, Youth, and Families
 - BPA Group on Psychopharmacology
 - Teachers of Psychology in Secondary Schools
 - Divisions 12, 16, 17, 29, 35, 37, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 51, 53, 54
 - Board of Educational Affairs (BEA)
 - Committee on International Relations in Psychology (CIRP)
- And non-APA groups:
 - American Association for Marriage and Family Therapy (AAMFT)
 - American Family Therapy Academy (AFTA)
 - Society for Teachers of Family Medicine
 - Joint Committee on Professional Education in Psychology (JCPEP)
 - Academy of Family Psychology
 - American Board of Family Psychology
 - International Academy of Family Psychology (IAFP)
 - National Council on Family Relations (NCFR)

Membership

- Membership is open to Members, Associates, and Fellows of APA.
- Members and Fellows require a doctoral degree in psychology.
- Student affiliates require current enrollment in a doctoral program in psychology and receive all benefits of membership except voting.
- Associates require a graduate degree in psychology.
- Affiliate Membership is open to doctoral level psychologists who are not members of APA.

Division 43 Administrative Office

American Psychological Association

750 First Street, NE

Washington, DC 20002-4242

Phone: 202-336-6013 / Fax: 202-218-3599 / Email: kcooke@apa.org

Web: www.apa.org/divisions/div43

Membership Application -- Please type or print clearly

Name _____

Address _____

City, state, and zip _____

Telephone _____

Email _____

Please add me to the Division 43 LISTSERV

APA Status: Associate Member Fellow Student

APA Membership # _____

I would like to join Division 43 as a

Member (APA Member/Associate/Fellow, $31)

Affiliate (Need not belong to APA, $50)

Student Affiliate (Need not belong to APA, $15)

Please mail completed application and check payable to APA Division 43 to

Division 43 Administrative Office

American Psychological Association

750 First Street, NE

Washington, DC 20002-4242

Now check out our Web site for the latest news: www.apa.org/divisions/div43