

UCSF Department of Psychiatry
Historical Trauma: Healing Approaches in Native
American Communities

Tuesday, July 1, 2008

7:30am - 5:00pm

The Presidio Officer's Club
50 Moraga Avenue, San Francisco, CA

featuring

Healing the Historical Trauma Response

by

Maria Yellow Horse Brave Heart, PhD

Maria Yellow Horse Brave Heart, Ph.D., is an Associate Professor of Social Work at Columbia University. She has developed the concept of historical trauma and historical unresolved grief theory and interventions among Native Americans. She founded the Takini Network, a non-profit organization devoted to community healing from intergenerational massive group trauma among Native People.

Other Speakers Include:

Joseph P. Gone, PhD

Nelson Jim, MFT

Michele Maas, MSW

Ethan Nebelkopf, PhD

Theda New Breast, MPH

Karina L. Walters, PhD, MSW

All faculty members, clinical staff, trainees and community providers are welcome to attend.

Continuing education credits will be provided for MFTs and LCSWs.

For more information and to register, contact Anna Stevens at anna.stevens@ucsf.edu or 415-476-7470.

Free Registration ♦ Free Parking

Co-sponsored by the California-Arizona Node of the NIDA Clinical Trials Network and the Native American Health Center, San Francisco and Oakland, CA