

Call For Nominations: Editor, Psychology of Men and Masculinity

Division 51 is seeking nominations for Editor of its quarterly journal, Psychology of Men and Masculinity. The Editor will work with the journal's consulting editors and with APA to produce the journal. This includes coordinating the manuscript review process; communicating with authors, editorial consultants, and APA staff; and monitoring of the journal's production process. The incoming editor will be "Editor-elect" starting January 2007, and will be responsible for coordinating review of manuscripts submitted that year. He/she will become "Editor" and assume full responsibility for the journal beginning January 2008 through 2011.

Division 51 encourages participation by members of underrepresented groups in the publication process and would particularly welcome such nominees. The Division also welcomes self-nominations, nominations of Division 51 members, and nominations of members of other divisions. Please email your nominations to David Shepard, PhD, Chair, PMM Search Committee, at dshepard@fullerton.edu. Deadline for accepting Nominations is January 25, 2006.
