

Divisional Programming at the 2007 APA convention in San Francisco

News from the Program Chair: Chen Z. Oren, Ph.D.

Division 51 is proud to announce our outstanding program for the upcoming APA conference in San Francisco. Our lineup includes excellent symposia, workshops, posters, and social hours. The full conference program can be downloaded from the APA website. Here are some division highlights:

Division 51 and Division 35 Joint Invited Address

Jean Kilbourne, Ed.D. – So Sexy So Soon: The Sexualization of Childhood

Friday, August 17, 3:00pm - 3:50pm

Moscone Center Room 304

Jean Kilbourne is widely recognized for her pioneering work on alcohol and tobacco advertising and the image of women in advertising. Her films, slide lectures and television appearances have been seen by millions of people throughout the world. She was named by The New York Times Magazine as one of the three most popular speakers on college campuses today. Her book, Can't Buy My Love: How Advertising Changes the Way We Think and Feel, won the Distinguished Publication Award from the Association for Women in Psychology in 2000. She is also known for her award-winning documentaries Killing Us Softly, Slim Hopes, and Calling the Shots.

Division 35 & 51 Joint Social Hour

Friday, August 17, 6:30pm – 8:30pm

Thirsty Bear, 661 Howard Street

All members of Divs. 51 and 35, Society for the Psychology of Women, are invited to our second annual joint social hour. After last year's success, the joint social hour was a must! This event sponsored by Divs. 35 and 51 will not be in the convention guide - so please help spread the word! It will be an excellent time to network and socialize with members from both divisions and to chat with our joint invited address, Jean Kilbourne.

Division 51 Invited Address

Neil Chethik – What Men Really Think of Their Relationships: Challenging Conventional Wisdom

Sunday, August 19, 10:00am - 10:50am

Moscone Center Room 3005

Are men really commitment-phobic? Do they refuse to talk about their relationships? Are they really obsessed with sex? Neil Chethik conducted a landmark study of 350 American husbands and shares his surprising answers to these and other questions about men and relationships. Neil also shares what men told him about why they do (or don't) seek psychotherapy, and what styles of therapy work best for them.

BIO: Neil Chethik is an author, researcher, and speaker specializing in men's lives and family issues. He is the author of two books: VoiceMale: What Husbands Really Think About Their Marriages, Their Wives, Sex, Housework and Commitment (Simon & Schuster 2006), and FatherLoss: How Sons of All Ages Come To Terms With the Deaths of Their Dads (Hyperion 2001). His writings have appeared in hundreds of print and web publications. He is currently Writer-in-Residence at the Carnegie Center for Literacy and Learning in Lexington, Ky., where he lives with his wife, Kelly Flood, and son, Evan. He can be reached through his website: www.NeilChethik.com
