

Appendix O

Current Status of Projects Proposed at the National Forum on Psychology Partnerships

Summary

28 Proposals from Forum
 4 Proposals Combined into 2 Projects

26 Projects From Forum

Of these 26 projects:

7 Projects Completed
 6 Projects In Progress with Completion Expected by December 2002
 2 Projects Ongoing – Designed to be on-going with no concrete completion date
 11 Projects Discontinued

References for all completed presentations are in Appendix E.

References for all completed publications are in Appendix F.

Name	Description	Funded	Status as of September 2001	Product: Completed (C), In Progress-To Be Completed (IP-TBC), Ongoing (OG) or Expected (E)
Advising
Advising Needs Assessment	Conduct & publish results of survey of students & faculty re needs regarding academic & career advising	APA Education Directorate Grant – $1,500	Manuscript in preparation	1 Presentation (C – Gray, 2001)  1 Journal Article (IP-TBC – Gray, In preparation)
Career Options in Psychology: Review of Empirical Data	Review of current literature on career options of psychology baccalaureate graduates	None	Completed	1 Book Chapter (C – Landrum, Davis & Landrum, 2000)
Conversations & Careers in Psychology: Faculty	Develop & publish template for conference on careers and hold some conferences	None	Combined with “Conversations & Careers in Psychology: Students” – Both projects discontinued after one prototype session	1 Presentation (C – Ringgold & Lefton, 2000)
Conversations & Careers in Psychology: Students	Develop & publish template for conference on careers and hold some conferences	None	Combined with “Conversations & Careers in Psychology: Faculty” – Both projects discontinued after one prototype session	None
Marketing a Psychology Education to New Roles and Careers	Develop materials describing marketing strategies & put on careers website	None	Never begun	None
Real People, Really Interesting Careers	Web-based listing of biographical statements of people with careers in psychology with bachelor's, master's and doctorate degrees	None	Never begun	None
Whose Hiring Psychology Majors	Conduct research & publish results of survey of potential employers to identify career options and skills employers need/expect	None	Manuscript completed and under revision for publication consideration	1 Presentation (C – Harrold, Nelsen & Landrum, 2000)  1 Journal Article (IP-TBC) – Landrum & Harrold, 2001)

Name	Description	Funded	Status as of September 2001	Product: Completed (C), In Progress-To Be Completed (IP-TBC), Ongoing (OG) or Expected (E)
Assessment
Assessing Information Retrieval Skills in Psychology	Work with Society for the Teaching of Psychology (STP) task force on developing "standards" for information retrieval & evaluation in psychology and assessment of these skills	None	STP formed a task force but work was not begun – Transitioned to STP	None
Authentic Assessment of Scientific Reasoning in Psychology Courses	Develop & publish "authentic" assessment materials aimed at evaluating practical application of scientific reasoning to research & real life problems	Carnegie Academy for the Scholarship of Teaching and Learning – $5,000  Society for the Teaching of Psychology – $2,000 for conference  Also seeking additional funding	Manuscript completed and submitted for publication consideration  Post-forum project initiated – "Best Practices in Assessment: A Conference for Educators & Administrators in Psychology"	1 Presentation (C – Clay, Nesmith, Weaver, & McCarthy, 2000)  1 Journal Article (IP-TBC) – Halonen et al., 2001)  1 National Conference (E – September 2002)
Self Assessment in the Psychology Classroom	Develop & publish classroom self-assessment materials for students & teachers; pilot materials in 4 classes (HS, CC, 4-yr, G)	None	Discontinued as individual project – embedded in "Authentic Assessment of Scientific Reasoning in Psychology Courses" project	None
Curriculum
Enhancing the Quality of Introductory Psychology: Implementing APA's National Standards	Create manual to assist in use of APA's National Standards for Teaching High School Psychology (i.e. Intro Psych)	None	Renamed "Enhancing the Quality of Introductory Psychology Through Partnerships" – manual completed – decision pending whether to put on APA Education Directorate web site or distribute with next version of Standards	1 Presentation (C – Addison & Lampkin, 2000)  1 Manual (C – Davidson, 2000)
Midwest Institute for Students of Psychology (MISOP: A Student Research Conference)	Organize & host a professional research conference for psychology students from high school through graduate school	None	Instead of separate student conference, a student track was added to existing conference – "2001 Midwest Institute for Teachers and Students of Psychology" – first conference completed – conference coordinators preparing guidebook on how to include students in teaching conferences	1 Presentation (C – Dean & Puccio, 2000)  1 Regional Conference (C)  1 Electronic Guidebook (IP-TBC – Puccio & Dean, In preparation)
Psy is Pscience: Modifying the Public Perception of Psychology	Physical & web-based "psychology trunk" of scientific demonstrations of psychological research and concepts to expose students in K - 12 to science of psychology	APA Education Directorate – $2,500	Renamed "Traveling Psychology Trunk" – Completed – decision pending whether to put accompanying manual on APA Education Directorate web site	2 Presentations (C – Davidson, 2000; Sullivan, 1999)  2 Traveling Psychology Trunks with materials for demonstrations (C)  1 Manual (C – Jordan, 2001)

Name	Description	Funded	Status as of September 2001	Product: Completed (C), In Progress-To Be Completed (IP-TBC), Ongoing (OG) or Expected (E)
Diversity
Extending the Educational Pipeline for DP 2000	Extend Psi Beta's Diversity Project 2000 by including honors high school psychology students	None	Proposal brought to Psi Beta and APA but deemed not feasible – discontinued	None
Forming Diversity Partnerships	Establish local cross-level partnerships among teachers paying special attention to issues surrounding isolation, diversity, enhancing cultural competency	None	Group representative joined others in organizing Rhode Island Teachers of Psychology – group is ongoing - Group members completed article addressing need for cultural competency	1 New Partnership (OG – Rhode Island Teachers of Psychology)  2 Newsletter Articles (C – Bosack, 2000; Grimes & Prieto, 2000a)  4 Presentations (C – Bosack et al., 1999; Carroll, 2000; Cheney, 2000; Ladd, 2000)
Minority Honor Student Directory	Publish directory of minority honor students in psychology at high school, community college, 4-yr and graduate level	None	Group explored options for this project – given similar existing resources, project discontinued	None
Open Forum Partnerships	Provide culturally diverse students opportunity to visit/work with instructors & students at next level	None	No systematic implementation of project	None
Faculty Development
Using Partnerships to Enhance Faculty Development	Create, disseminate and promote handbook that provides models and strategies for forming cross-level partnerships to meet faculty development needs	None	Manuscript in preparation with intent of putting it online at APA Education Directorate Site	1 Presentation (C – Hester & Mattimore, 2000)  1 Electronic Handbook (IP-TBC – Clark, In preparation)
Partnerships
P3 Committee of Society for the Teaching of Psychology	Create a committee or task force within Society for the Teaching of Psychology that will institutionalize the focus on partnerships	None	Completed – STP did form a Partnerships Task Force	New Partnerships Task Force in Professional Association (OG)
Teaching a Global Psychology: International Faculty & Student Dialogue	Bring together secondary & university teachers from several countries to discuss issues of teaching psychology	None	In progress – “International Conference on Psychology Education” being organized for June 2002 in St. Petersburg, Russia – international advisory committee created to plan conference & seek funding	8 Presentations (C – Ewing, 2000; McCarthy, 1999, 2000, 2001a; McCarthy & Karandashev, 2000; McCarthy, Karandashev, Prandini, & Hollingsworth, 2001; McCarthy, Karandashev, Vasquez, Bussell, Lebonochev, & Kalishnikov, 2000; McCarthy, Vasque, Valdaz, Conroy, Brown, Cordova, & Urena, 2001)  1 International Conference (E – June 2002)

Name	Description	Funded	Status as of September 2001	Product: Completed (C), In Progress-To Be Completed (IP-TBC), Ongoing (OG) or Expected (E)
The Many Faces of Psychology	Informational video to highlight psychology as a science (careers in scientific psychology, interviews with psychology researchers, examples of research) – for use with middle & high school students as well as general public	Worth Publishing Co. – $15,000	On hold – until able to obtain additional funding needed to complete project	None
Research
Bridges to the Future	Create research partnerships between community college faculty/students and university faculty/students	NIH, National Institute of General Medical Science (NIGMS) (grant to Spelman College included P3 project)  APA Office of Ethnic Minority Affairs with funding from NIGMS	Projects in progress – “Bridges to the Future: Community Colleges & Baccalaureate Institutions” – one based out of Spelman College, one based out of Prince Georges Community College	2 New Regional Partnerships (OG)  1 Presentation (C – Scott-Johnson, 2000)
Faculty Research Collaborations-Development	Create web database of faculty research interests in effort to facilitate development of research partnerships among teachers with similar research interests	None	Never begun – could be incorporated into a project by Technology Group	None
High School, Undergraduates, Graduates Gaining Experience in Research & Service	Create local cross-level research opportunities & sharing of research interests between teachers and students in high schools, community colleges & universities	California State Legislature “Partnership for Excellence Program” – $4,000  APA Education Directorate & University of Utah	Several projects ongoing – new partnership based out of Palomar College, new partnerships based out of University of San Diego, expansion of partnership based out of University of Utah	2 New Partnerships (OG)  Expansion of 1 Existing Partnership (OG)  3 Presentations (C – Schira, Stoddart, & Wholeben, 2000; Stoddart, 2000; Vernoy, 2000)
Workshops-Institutes for Research Education & Development	2-week national institute on teaching psychological research methodology & statistics and creating resource package of materials for teachers	None	Never begun	None
Service Learning
The What, How & Why of Service Learning: A Multilevel Developmental Framework for Psychology	Articulate a framework of service learning across academic levels; hold national forum on service learning in psychology	Campus Compact – $20,000  APA Education Directorate – $20,000 in matching funds	Completed and refining framework Six service learning projects either completed or ongoing Web site on service learning in psychology in development	6 New Partnerships (IP)  1 Presentation (C – Duffy, 2000)  1 Report (C – Duffy, 2001)  1 Web Site (IP)

Name	Description	Funded	Status as of September 2001	Product: Completed (C), In Progress-To Be Completed (IP-TBC), Ongoing (OG) or Expected (E)
Technology
Facilitating Psychology Partnerships: Electronic Directories of Psychology Teachers	Pilot project in 7 states to create electronic (web-based) directory of psychology teachers at all levels	APA Education Directorate – $?????????	Web site completed for California – still gathering names for several other states	1 On-line State Directory of Psychology Teachers (OG)  Additional State Directories (E)  1 Presentation (C – Rudmann, 2000)
Planning for On-line Technology Catalog for the Teaching of Psychology	Find a sponsor to develop and maintain a web-based catalog of on-line resources for teaching psychology	None	Never begun	None