

Application Form for Invitation Letter to Attend 2009 APA Convention

The Office of International Affairs is pleased to send a formal letter of invitation to attend the 2009 APA Convention in Toronto, Canada, August 6–9, 2009. It is understood that such a letter of invitation is intended to help potential attendees raise travel funds or to obtain a visa to travel to Canada. It does not imply a commitment from APA to provide any financial support, nor can we call or write personal letters to embassies or consulates on your behalf.

Letters of invitation may be requested no later than July 17, 2009. Letters will be sent electronically in PDF format or mailed by first-class air mail if requested. Print two copies of your letter – one to submit with your visa application and one to present when you enter Canada. If you are applying for a visa, Canadian authorities ask that you provide both your home and business address.
