Diversity Awareness Committee of the Southern Arizona Psychological Association	Dr. Mary-Wales North Tucson Police Department 270 South Stone Ave. Tucson, AZ 85701 520/791-4499, ext. 1647 mnorth1@ci.tucson.az.us	Friday March 28, 2002, from 1-4 pm Workshops Board Room, Amphitheater School Administration Building 701 West Wetmore Road Tucson, AZ 85705 Open to school counselors, psychologists, and other health professionals. APA approved CEU's will be available to psychologists. The expected attendees are school psychologists, numbering over 50. The scandal of Senator Trent Lott's remarks in December 2002 are just one example of on-going racist behaviors and attitudes in U.S. institutions. The purpose of this training is to provide school psychologists and other mental health professionals with tools to counteract racism in Tucson area institutions. We will use the video "Blue-Eyed" about Jan e Elliott's experiment with Iowa school children, to illustrate one creative teacher's experiment. The workshop will include multi-media instruction and hands-on experience with the effects of racism.
