

Past Work, Stress, and Health Conference Awards

Lifetime Career Achievement Award. This award honors researchers and practitioners whose careers are characterized by a series of distinguished contributions that have significantly advanced the field of occupational health psychology.

2006	Lennart Levi, Ph.D.
2003	Karla Smith, Ph.D., Josephine Goldmark, Marie Johoda, Ph.D.
1999	Sidney Cobb, M.D., John R.P. (Jack) French, Jr., Ph.D.

Early Career Achievement Award. NEW to the 2008 Conference, this award honors young researchers and practitioners who have made exceptional early career contributions to the science and/or practice of occupational health psychology.

Best JOHP Article Award. This award recognizes the best article published in the Journal of Occupational Health Psychology.

2006	[for 2000-2004]	De Lange, A., Taris, T., Kompier, M., Houtman, I., & Bongers, P. (2003). The Very Best of the Millennium: Longitudinal research and the demand-control-(support) model. Journal of Occupational Health Psychology, 8 , 282-305.
2006	[for 1995-1999]	Zapf, D., Dormann, C., & Frese, M. (1996). Longitudinal studies in organizational stress research: A review of the literature with reference to methodological issues. Journal of Occupational Health Psychology, 1 , 145-169.

Best Practices Evaluation Paper Competition. This competition recognizes outstanding evaluations of "best practices" that partner researchers with industry and/or labor to prevent occupational injuries and illnesses and to promote safety and health at work.

2006: 1 st place	Cheryl Haslam, Zara Whysall, and Roger A. Haslam	A staged approach to reducing musculoskeletal disorders
2006: 2 nd place tie	Shoshi Chen, Mina Westman, and Dov Eden	Impact of enhanced resources on anticipatory stress and adjustment to new information technology: A field-experimental test of conservation of resources theory
2006: 2 nd place tie	Anna-Liisa Elo, Pauliina Mattila, Jenni Nyman, and Eeva Kuosma	Evaluation of an organizational stress management program in municipal public works.

Best Student Research Competition. This competition highlights outstanding contributions made by graduate students to the growing field of Occupational Health Psychology.

2006	Shoshi Chen	Impact of enhanced resources on anticipatory stress and adjustment to new information technology: A field-experimental test of conservation of resources theory
------	-------------	---