1. Copyright Transfer

A. AUTHORIZED CORRESPONDING AUTHOR: The undersigned, desiring to publish the above manuscript in a print publication and/or electronic information service of the American Psychological Association (APA), hereby assigns to APA on behalf of all authors, all right, title, and interest in the above manuscript and any supplemental materials. (If the majority of authors or primary authors are U.S. government employees, a signature is required in Section C and not in this section.) All proprietary rights other than copyright, such as patent rights, shall remain with the author(s). In return for copyright, APA hereby grants to the authors listed in Section 2 of this form, and the employers for whom the work was performed (if applicable), royalty-free, nonexclusive, limited licenses to:

1. Reproduce, or have reproduced, the above manuscript for the author(s)' personal use or for the author(s)' intracompany use provided that (a) the source and APA copyright notice are indicated and (b) the copies are not used in a way that implies APA endorsement of a product or service of an employer. This license does not include the right for the author(s) to transfer, offer for sale, or sell the manuscript to any third party.
2. Distribute or post all or portions of the above manuscript, after final acceptance for publication by APA, to the repository at the author(s) institution in compliance with APA's Prior Publication Policy and Internet Posting Policy (available at www.apa.org/pubs/authors/posting.aspx and incorporated herein by reference).
3. In the case of work performed under U.S. Government contract, APA grants the U.S. Government royalty-free permission to reproduce all or portions of the above manuscript and to authorize others to do so for U.S. Government purposes.

For manuscripts arising from National Institutes of Health (NIH) funded investigations, APA will send the final peer-reviewed and accepted manuscript file to the NIH manuscript submission system on your behalf, in a manner consistent with federal law. Please complete the form "Statement of Eligibility for NIH Deposit" in order for APA to identify relevant manuscripts.

Through signature below, the undersigned author (a) signifies acceptance of the terms and conditions listed above; (b) affirms that written permission has been obtained for all previously published and/or copyrighted material contained in this manuscript and any supplemental materials for online publication, as well as any other requisite permissions or releases; (c) affirms that the manuscript is an original work of authorship that has not been previously published, does not infringe any third party's intellectual property rights, and does not contain any material that is obscene, defamatory, or libelous; (d) has read and agrees to APA's internet posting policy; and (e) affirms that he/she is authorized to sign this form on behalf of all authors.

C. U.S. GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEES: In lieu of the author signature in Section A above, author(s) whose work was performed within the scope of their employment with the U.S. Government must provide the signature of an authorized representative, certifying that the work is in the public domain. (If the work was performed under Government contract but the author is not a Government employee, no signature is required in this section—please see Section A.3 above.)

I certify that the majority of the authors or the primary authors of the manuscript cited above are employees of the U.S. Government and performed this work as part of their employment and that the paper is therefore not subject to the U.S. copyright protection.

2. Authorship Certification (all authors must sign this section)

Note: Faxed signatures, digital signatures, or photocopies are acceptable for all authors. By signing below, the undersigned author(s) agrees to indemnify, defend, and hold harmless APA for third party claims of copyright infringement based on APA's use of the manuscript and to approve the order of authorship as listed at the top of this form.

APA Permission Policy Governing the Secondary Use of Copyrighted Material

It is the policy of APA to own the copyrights to its publications, and to the contributions contained therein, in order to protect the interests of the Association, its authors, and their employers, and at the same time to facilitate the appropriate reuse of this material by others.

In exercising its rights under U.S. copyright law, APA requires authors to obtain APA's permission and/or pay APA a fee to republish or reuse the author(s)' manuscript under certain circumstances.

Circumstances in which no permission or fees will be required:

- Authors seeking to reproduce their own manuscript for personal use
- Photocopying of isolated articles for noncommercial classroom and/or library reserve use

Circumstances in which permission is required, but no fee will be charged:

- Authors seeking to use their own material commercially (but for use in edited book compilations, fees are waived for the author only if he or she is serving as the editor of that book compilation)

Circumstances in which permission and a fee will be charged:

- Photocopying of materials for classroom use in which students are charged for the copies
- Photocopying of two or more articles, regardless of classroom use
- Photocopying of materials for course packs and other large-scale copying, regardless of whether a fee is charged to the students
- Commercial organizations seeking to reprint APA materials

Fees are normally charged to all commercial organizations that secure permission to reprint APA-copyrighted material. This fee, after an appropriate deduction to cover APA's costs associated with administering the permission function, is turned over to the American Psychological Foundation, a charitable nonprofit 501(c)(3) organization, incorporated independently of APA. For more information on permissions and fees, please see the APA Permissions Policy available at <http://www.apa.org/about/contact/copyright/index.aspx> and incorporated herein by reference.
