CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

The Committee on Disability Issues in Psychology (CDIP) of the American Psychological Association (APA) is soliciting nominations for the Committee on Disability Issues in Psychology Distinguished Contributions Award.

This award recognizes an APA member who has made a significant contribution to people with disabilities through promoting inclusion, advancing knowledge and research, participating in advocacy, and fostering empowerment of people with disabilities in society.

This award was developed to recognize a current APA member who has had a significant and enduring impact on advancing the role of psychological principles to enhance the lives of and promote the inclusion of people with disabilities in society. The contributions may be of a scientific, professional, educational, mentoring, leadership or political nature.

The nominator is asked to compile and submit the following materials:

- A letter of nomination not to exceed 500 words (written by the nominator) describing the specific achievements and contributions to people with disabilities within society. Nominee contributions may be of a scientific, professional, educational, mentoring, leadership, and/or political nature.
- A current curriculum vitae of the nominee
- 2 letters of support

Nominations and all supporting materials must be received no later than June 21, 2019.

Send nomination materials to:
Office on Disability Issues in Psychology
Public Interest Directorate
American Psychological Association
750 First Street, N.E.
Washington, D.C. 20002- 4242

You can also email them to Lisa Bacote at: fbacote@apa.org.

The award will be presented by members of CDIP at APA 2019 in Chicago, Illinois. The award recipient will be asked to provide their reflections on a topic of their choice on the Office on Disability Issues in Psychology webpage.
