

ACT Raising Safe Kids Facilitator Training

Bon Secours Family Focus, the ACT Raising Safe Kids Program regional coordinator, is partnered with Norfolk Department of Human Services and the American Psychological Association (APA) and its ADULTS AND CHILDREN TOGETHER (ACT) RAISING SAFE KIDS program to present the ACT Raising Safe Kids Facilitator Training. The mission of ACT is to educate and mobilize families, professionals and communities to prevent violence before it occurs. Become an ACT Facilitator and conduct the APA's ACT Raising Safe Kids Program.

WHEN

August 28-29, 2018 (8:30 a.m. – 4:30 p.m.)

Norfolk Department of Human Services

741 Monticello Ave

Norfolk, VA 23510

Registration Fee: $150 – Facilitator Kit (cost of the Facilitator Manual, Parent Handbook, Motivational Interviewing Manual, Evaluation Manual, brochures, CD to replicate materials, and DVD of a PSA). The session is limited to the first 15 persons with paid registration of $150. Registration deadline and cancellation: 5 days prior to training session.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND - The ACT FACILITATOR TRAINING will benefit professionals and organizations working with caregivers of children aged 0-8 years, such as:

- Case Managers
- Childcare Workers
- School Counselors
- Mental Health Workers
- Social Workers
- Psychologists
- Law Enforcement Personnel
- Educators
- Clergy
- Marriage & Family Therapists
- Mediators
- Nurses and Medical Staff

WHAT YOU LEARN – ACT's evidence-based curriculum lets you help caregivers from all backgrounds by providing you:

- Current information on how violence affects child development
- How children experience violence and violent media
- Risk factors for child violence in the family and its consequences
- Parenting styles, protective factors and skills for effective parenting
- Positive conflict resolution interventions with children
- How to discipline vs. punish children
- How to take this program into your community

WHAT OTHERS HAVE TO SAY

- "This is one of the best courses I've ever taken. "
- "Program instructors are very knowledgeable about early violence prevention."
- "Training materials are highly relevant to early violence prevention."
- "The training is very effective."
- "Participating in the activities built my confidence to teach the ACT Raising Safe Kids program."
- "The training prepared me for the types of issues that might come up with people in my parent groups."
- "I can't wait to offer this program to families in my school!"

WHAT YOU GET

- An ACT Facilitator Completion Certificate enables you to teach the 8-week ACT Raising Safe Kids program
- All curriculum materials needed to deliver the program to parents (available in English or Spanish)
- Increased effectiveness in your work with families and children
- Increased income for your agency or practice

This APA program was evaluated by the Battelle Centers for Public Health Research and Evaluation under a grant from the Center for Disease Control and Prevention. Findings indicate that it is a successful model and curriculum to prepare professionals and other adults to disseminate early violence prevention knowledge and skills.
