1. Conflict of Interest Disclosures

There were no conflict of interest disclosures relevant to the April CABE call.

2. Approval of the March 2026 Meeting Minutes

CABE approved the minutes of the March 2026 meeting.

3. CABE Subcommittee Discussion Time

CABE members used breakout rooms to discuss subcommittee work.

The Guidelines 3.0 subcommittee discussed the following items:

- Potential plans for submissions for one or two virtual conference sessions or posters (e.g., PsychTERMS or Psychonomics) and to the Psi Beta conference.
- Initial plans for the 2026 resources award, to focus on Guidelines Goal 2 and the use of AI tools to create authentic learning assignments to encourage scientific inquiry and critical thinking.

The Value of a Psychology Degree subcommittee updated a draft of a one-page “Psychology Works” resource, which featured the APA pillar model, the skillful psychology student work, and various career pathways. The subcommittee hopes to have a final draft by May 9. The subcommittee also discussed the following items:

- Their submission to the Virtual Conference on Teaching.
- The tentative collaboration with TOPSS on a fall webinar and ways to address common pathways for high school students that lead students to major in psychology.
- The CABE Student Essay Competition could be discussed at the next (May) CABE meeting.

4. CABE Resource Evaluation Form

Albee Mendoza shared a draft evaluation form for assessing CABE resources, as recommended at the March CABE meeting. The form could be put in an excel sheet or shared google sheet with weighted tiers for ease and accuracy of use. The form could be piloted by the June CABE call on the archived Guide to Online Teaching or other resource.

5. Award Nominations

CABE discussed potential award nominees as initially discussed at its March meeting.

Action: Members are asked to bring names of potential nominees for the STP Robert S. Daniel Award and Wayne Weiten Teaching Excellence Award to the May CABE call.

6. Conference plans for 2026

CABE members were reminded to share conference attendance plans via a shared spreadsheet. CABE members discussed planned submissions for the STP Annual Conference on Teaching and Virtual Conference on Teaching.

7. Next meetings

CABE members were informed of upcoming meeting dates. The planned May 15 call may need to be rescheduled.
