

How to Get Involved in APA Leadership

Where to begin?

- Learn more about what boards and committees do.
- Find opportunities that fit your areas of expertise and interest.
- Carefully review the requirements for open positions.
- Ask for assistance. Build relationships with representatives and discuss your desire to get involved.
- Apply!

List of Boards and Committees (please scan QR code)

Why Serve?

Serving on an APA board or committee gives you an opportunity to be directly involved in shaping the future of psychology. You will have a voice in changes that affect psychological science, practice, research, education and knowledge.

ECP Positions

- Majority of APA boards and committees have a designated slate for ECPs
- However, ECPs are strongly encouraged to apply to any position available beyond the ECP slate

2024 Open ECP Slates

- Board of Scientific Affairs
- Ethics Committee

2024 Committee on Early Career Psychologists (CECP) Open Positions

- Public Interests Representative
- Practice Representative

How to Apply

- Application portal opens on December 1, 2023 (please scan QR code)

