

Memorandum of Understanding

*The American Psychological Association
La Sociedad Cubana de Psicología da la Salud
La Sociedad Cubana de Psicología*

---

The American Psychological Association (APA) and the Cuban psychological associations, La Sociedad Cubana de Psicología and La Sociedad Cubana de Psicología de la Salud agree as follows:

Whereas, the Bylaws of APA and the Statutes of La Sociedad Cubana de Psicología and La Sociedad Cubana de Psicología da la Salud share mutual objectives calling for the advancement of the discipline in the public interest; and

Whereas, it is desirable to have integration and exchange between the psychological organizations in the United States and Cuba; and

Whereas, mutual concerns make it likely that occasions for joint consultation and cooperation will present themselves in the years to come; and

Whereas, both organizations wish to anticipate such occasions by establishing a framework, when possible, for their timely discussion;

Now therefore, APA and the Sociedad Cubana de Psicología and the Sociedad Cubana de Psicología da la Salud affirm and reaffirm their working relations in this Memorandum of Understanding.

Furthermore, pursuant to this Memorandum of Understanding, the executives of the associations shall maintain regular communication to discuss matters of common concern.

Finally, the associations will seek to identify projects and activities in which they may work together, assist or support one another, or otherwise cooperate for the betterment of psychology and the public interest.
