This license grant shall include the following:

Upon request, the APA will assist Licensee and its Member Sites in creating such links and Licensee shall make changes to the appearance of such links and/or in statements accompanying such links as requested by the APA.
- 1.2 Interlibrary Loan.
 - 1.2.1 Interlibrary Loan: Licensee and its Member Sites may use the Licensed Materials for Interlibrary Lending with the following restrictions:
 - i) Licensee and its Member Sites may use the Licensed Materials to fulfill print or image interlibrary loan requests from institutions that do not have access to the Licensed Materials, provided that such fulfillment is in accordance with the interlibrary loan provisions of Section 108 of the U.S. Copyright Act and the CONTU Guidelines.
 - ii) Such requests may be fulfilled only by Licensee and Member Site printing a copy of the item and providing that print copy or a photocopy or facsimile transmission thereof to the requesting party or by using an automated Inter-Library Loan system providing that supplies images only and not digital content.
- 1.3 Course Packs. Consistent with the Fair Use provisions of Section 107 of the U.S. Copyright Act, Licensee and its Member Sites may incorporate parts of the Licensed Materials in electronic Course Packs, Courseware and/or Electronic Reserve Collection for the use by Authorized Users in a particular course of instruction offered by Licensee and its Member Sites under the following conditions:

- 2.2.6 Licensee and Member Sites agree to inform the APA, immediately upon becoming aware of any unauthorized use or other breach, and to use best efforts to ensure that such activity ceases and to prevent any recurrence.
- 2.2.7 If the APA identifies any unauthorized use of the Licensed Materials in breach of this License Agreement, the APA has the right to immediately terminate access under this License Agreement for the offending IP Address until the breach is corrected. Schedule A

APA Archiving and Access Policy for APA PsycArticles®

Archiving by APA

APA is committed to preserving the knowledge base in psychology and to serving user and customer needs. To ensure preservation of the knowledge base, APA maintains a digital archive of all databases and will convert that archive as technology changes. APA also deposits all relevant journal and book content with Portico for perpetual archiving.

Access to Customer-Licensed Data Following Site License Non-Renewal

APA recognizes the business needs of libraries and other institutional customers to retain potential access to content for which they have purchased access.

APA's annual data fees entitle a subscribing institution to access the full range of content included in the subscribed-to database during their subscription period.

If, at a later date, an APA PsycArticles customer does not renew the site license then, without paying additional data fees to APA, the customer has perpetual use rights to the historical content of the database during the year/s of their subscription. Historical content includes content in the database at the time of the subscription and does not include later added or certain back file content.

Delivery of Customer-Licensed Data

APA has arrangements with Portico archiving solutions. Customers may work with Portico to arrange access to the materials they have perpetual rights to after their subscription has lapsed.

Other arrangements for delivery of materials customers have perpetual rights to after their subscription has lapsed may be made on a case-by-case basis at the sole discretion of the APA.

Note: No archival and access rights are available to customers who cancel their APA PsycInfo, APA PsycTests, APA PsycBooks, APA PsycExtra and/or APA PsycTherapy site license. By signing this agreement, Licensee agrees that this archival policy supersedes any archival policies in prior agreements between Licensee and the APA.
