It was finally time to leave! Dad and Daddy helped me pack up my suitcase and load it into our car.

It was time to hit the road.
We were going to our first family reunion.

We drove far, far away, to a big park with a long, windy river.

I could see 10...20...50 people!

"All these people are our family?" I asked.

"You bet!" said Dad.

"It's family time," said Daddy.
