MY WHIRLING, TWIRLING MOTOR

*Hurry!
We're late for school.*

I have a spinning motor inside me that buzzes and whirls and hums. I can't turn it off. It made me play with my dinosaurs instead of getting my shoes on this morning.

At school, my motor made me wiggle too much during story time.

And I talked out of turn.

I touched the teacher's scissors.

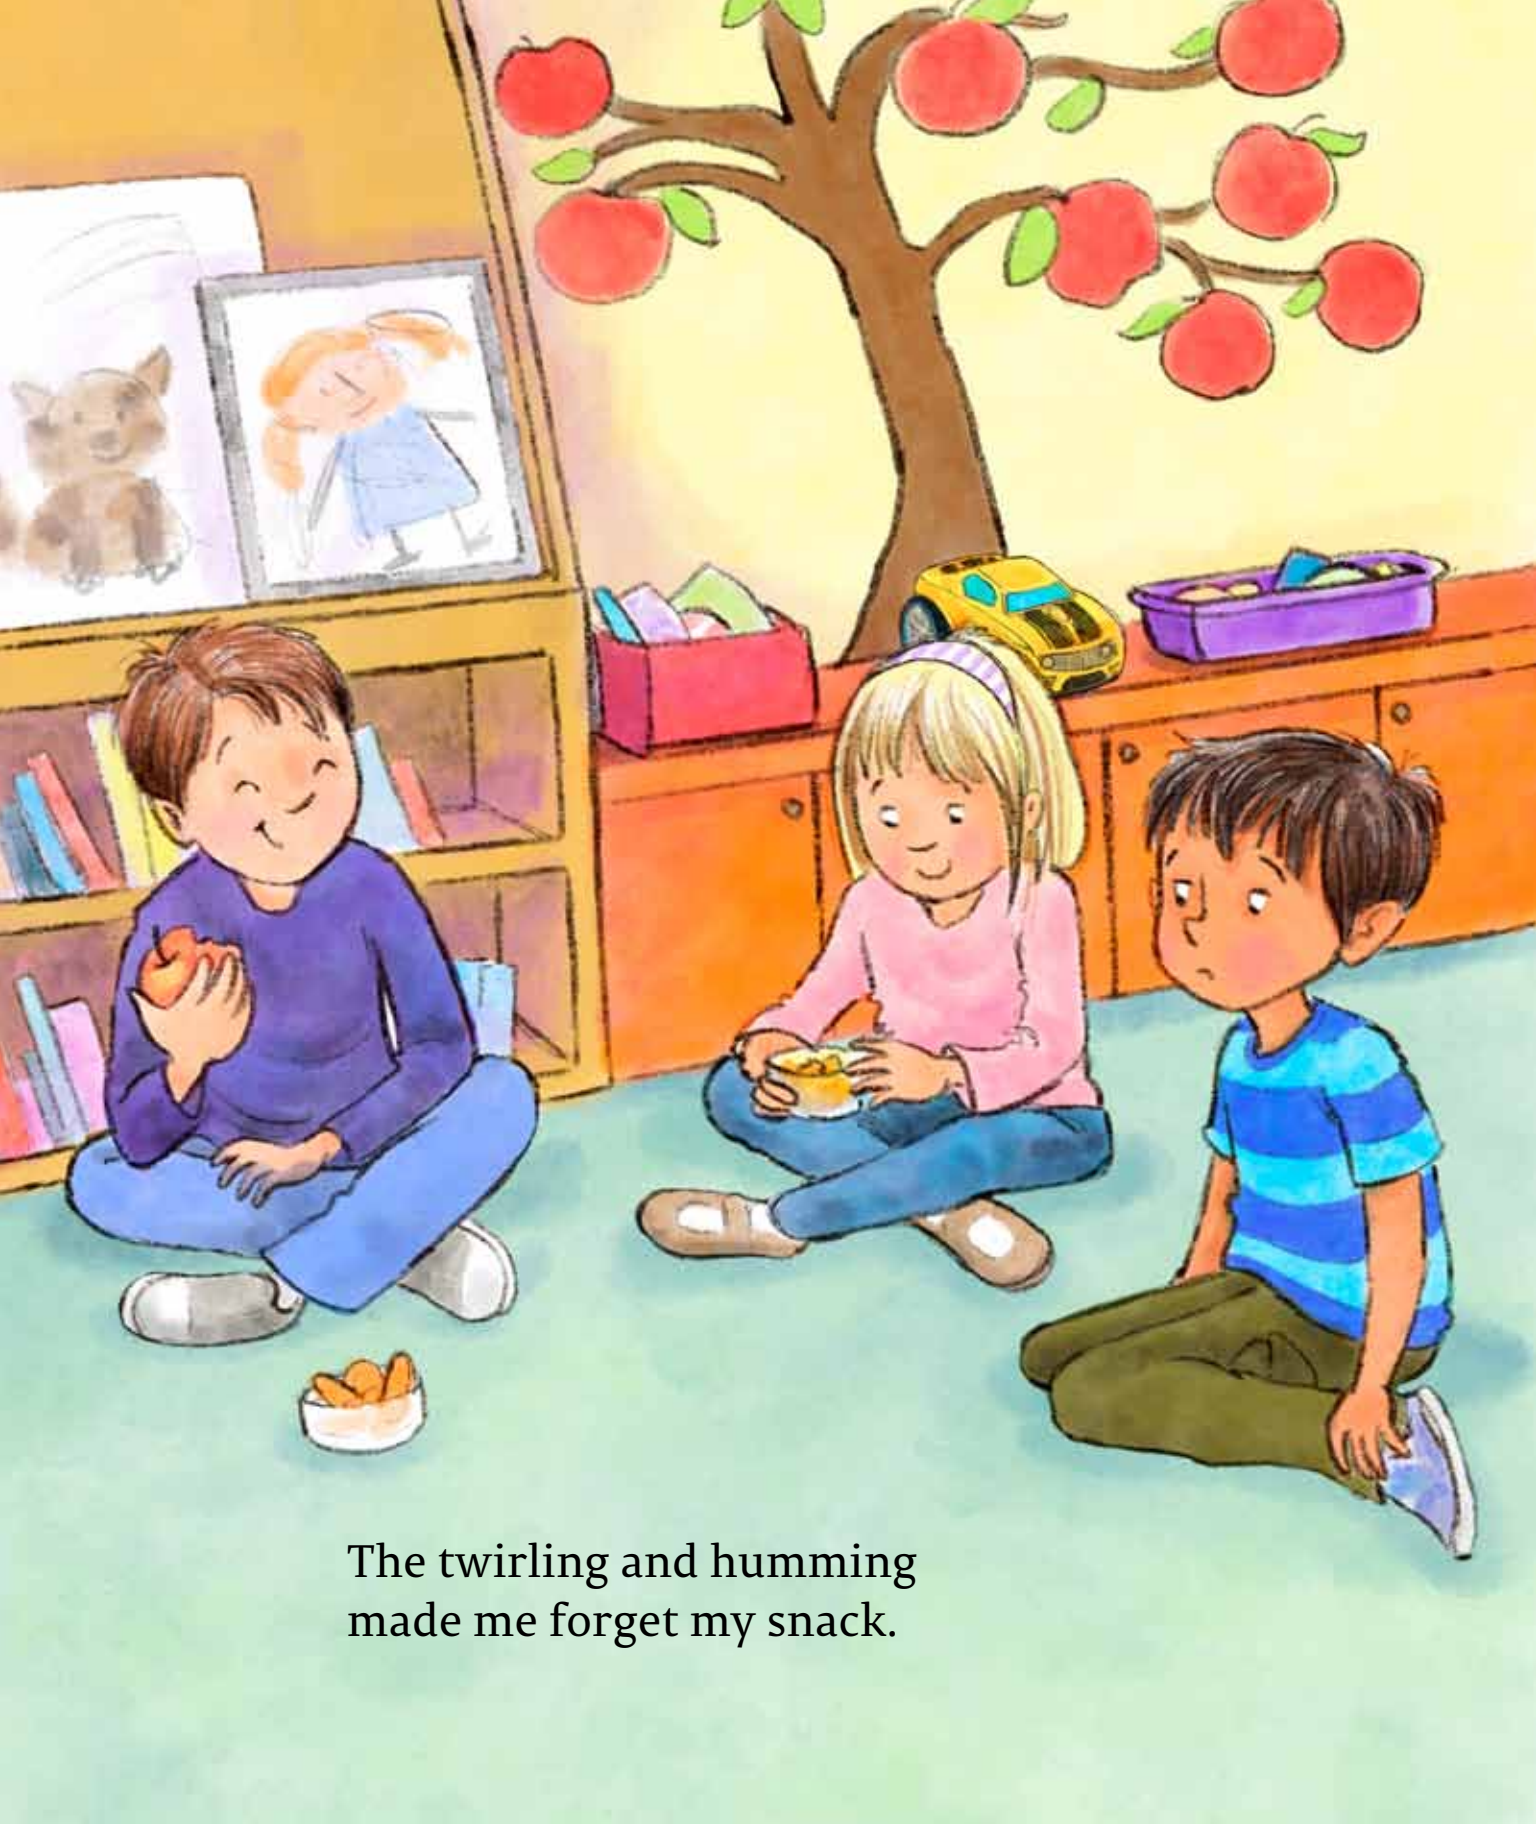

Whirling, spinning, humming.

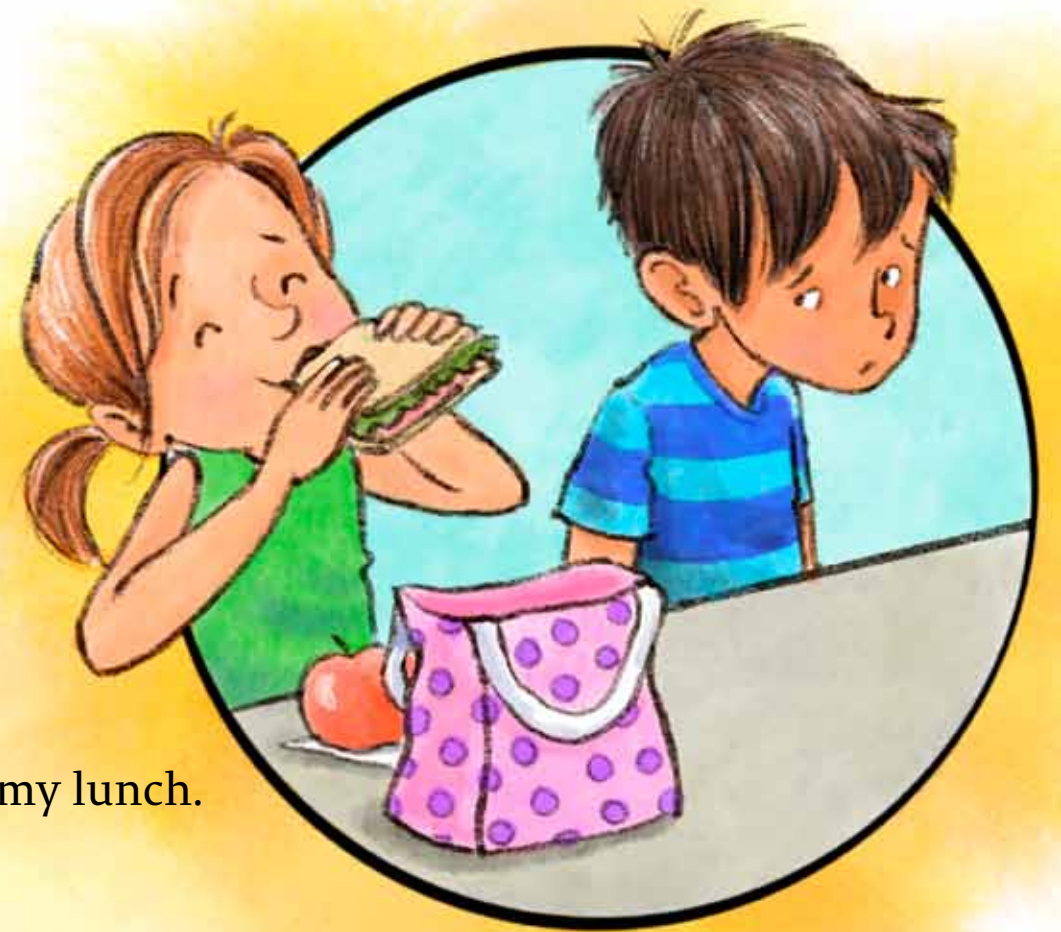

At recess, my friends wouldn't play with me
because my buzzing motor's noises were too annoying.

So I threw a ball hard and hit Nicole in the face.
By mistake. Ouch. Sorry Nicole.

The twirling and humming made me forget my snack.

And my lunch.

And my homework.
