

Oh moon so full, round,
and bright,
we beg one favor
of you tonight.
For witches who tattle,
witches who snitch,
tie their tongues, zip their lips!
No witch shall squeal or tell on friends.

This spell will be broken
when the snitching ends!

It was a full moon at Camp Spellbound.

Every year, witches from all over fly in on their brooms.

It’s a hair-raising, fun time.

There are broom races.

Magic potion swaps.

Cackling contests.

And hat decorating parties.

But one witch liked to snitch. And this caused trouble.

Wanda liked to get attention from the Head Witch.
Whenever Wanda believed someone was doing something wrong, she would tattle on them.

She snitched on William when he took food from the cauldron before dinner.

She snitched on Wendy for cutting in line.

She snitched on Wyatt for spilling some potion on the floor.

She snitched on Winnie for getting fingerprints on the crystal ball.

She even snitched on Ben the Black Cat for meowing too loud while everyone was sleeping!

Finger prints on the ball!

Too Loud!

The witches were wickedly angry with Wanda for snitching on everyone. Winnie let out a bloodcurdling scream!

No one wanted to spend time with Wanda at camp.
